Travel and Expense Addendum - Sweden

Addendum FIN-03-SE · Version 2026.1 · Effective 1 October 2026 · Owner: Finance Sweden · Rahmqvist Sverige AB

TEST DOCUMENT
Fictional content created to test the Rahmqvist Assistant. It is not an actual Rahmqvist policy.

1. Purpose and precedence

This addendum sets the Swedish rates for business travel. It applies to employees on a Swedish employment contract. Where it differs from the Group Travel and Expense Policy (FIN-03), this addendum applies in Sweden. Everything it does not mention follows FIN-03.

2. Mileage for your own car

Business driving in your own car is reimbursed at SEK 30 per Swedish mil (10 km) instead of the Group rate. SEK 25 per mil is tax-free under the Swedish Tax Agency's rules; the remaining SEK 5 per mil is paid as taxable salary. Log every trip in the expense app with date, start and end point and purpose.

3. Per diem (traktamente)

Instead of actual meal costs, employees in Sweden receive a per diem on business trips that include an overnight stay at least 50 km from both home and their usual workplace.

- Full day in Sweden: SEK 300.
- Half day in Sweden: SEK 150 - for a departure day starting after 12:00 or a return day ending before 19:00.
- Trips abroad: the Swedish Tax Agency's standard amount for each country.
- Meals that are paid for reduce the per diem: breakfast by 20%, lunch by 35% and dinner by 35%.

4. Hotels in Sweden

The nightly limit in Sweden is SEK 1,900 in Stockholm, Gothenburg and Malmö, and SEK 1,500 elsewhere, including VAT.

5. Trains

Second class is the standard. First class is allowed on journeys longer than three (3) hours when it is booked at least 14 days ahead.

6. Taxis

Use the company taxi account, which bills Rahmqvist directly; you then do not need to claim the fare. Other taxis are reimbursed with a receipt.

7. Keeping receipts

Swedish accounting law requires receipts to be kept for seven years. The expense app archives them for you, so you do not need to keep paper copies once the photo is uploaded.

Frequently asked questions

Q: What do I get for driving 120 km to a client in my own car?
A: 12 mil at SEK 30 is SEK 360, of which SEK 300 is tax-free and SEK 60 is paid as taxable salary.

Q: Is the Group's rate of EUR 0.30 per km used in Sweden?
A: No. In Sweden this addendum applies, so the rate is SEK 30 per mil.

Q: I travel to Gothenburg on Monday at 08:00 and come back Tuesday at 17:00. What per diem do I get?
A: Monday is a full day (SEK 300) because you leave before 12:00, and Tuesday is a half day (SEK 150) because you are back before 19:00 - SEK 450 in total, less any meals paid for.

Q: The hotel included breakfast. Does that matter?
A: Yes. A breakfast that is paid for reduces that day's per diem by 20%.
