TEST DOCUMENT
Fictional content created to test the Rahmqvist Assistant. It is not an actual Rahmqvist policy.

1. Purpose

We want everyone at Rahmqvist to keep growing. This policy explains the time and money available for learning, what it can be used for, and how to apply.

2. Your learning budget

Every employee has a personal learning budget of EUR 1,500 per calendar year. Part-time employees receive a share in proportion to their working hours. Employees who join during the year receive one twelfth of the budget for each month remaining, counting the month they start. Unused budget does not carry over to the next year.

3. Learning days

In addition to the budget, you have five (5) paid learning days per calendar year, to be agreed with your manager in advance. Learning days can be used for courses, conferences or structured self-study.

4. What the budget covers

- Courses, workshops and online learning platforms.
- Certification exams, including preparation material.
- Conference tickets. Travel to conferences follows the Travel and Expense Policy (FIN-03).
- Books and audiobooks related to your work, up to EUR 150 per year within the budget.
- Language courses in a language used in your work.

5. How to apply

Submit a request in the learning portal at least three (3) weeks before the start date. Your manager can approve anything within your budget. Requests above your remaining budget need your department head's approval as well.

6. Certifications and exams

The company pays the fee for the first attempt at a certification exam, whatever the result. A retake is paid once, after you pass it - so a failed retake is at your own cost.

7. Paying back costs if you leave

For a single learning activity that costs the company more than EUR 3,000, you sign a payback agreement. If you resign within 12 months of completing it, you repay one twelfth of the cost for each month remaining. Nothing is repaid if the company ends your employment.

8. Learning at Rahmqvist

Rahmqvist Academy offers free internal courses, a mentoring programme and monthly lunch-and-learn sessions. These do not use your budget or your learning days.
